INTERESTING FROM WASHINGTON.

TAR BLAVERY QUESTION DISPOSED OF IN THE HOUSE FOR THE SESSION QUIET RESTORED. [Consepondence of the N. Y. Express.] Washington, Dec. 21st, 1837.

The delegation of Southern members were in session last night until past twelve o'clock. They met before three in the afternoon continued in session for nearly two hours, adjourned over to seven in the evening and were legrasion five hours more. Mr. Paton, of Virginia was in the chair. Most of the slave-holding States were fully represented, and all of them I am told, in part. The South Carolina, Georgia, and Virginia delegation were all in sitendance, and a fair proportion of the delegations from Tennessee, Kentucky and North Carolina. The discussions are represented to have been characterized with remarkable moderation of inanner and temperance of language Mr. Calhaun, Mr. Preston, Mr. Cuthbert, Mr. Crittenden, addressed the meeting, with several other Senators from the slave holding States. The discussion terminated in an agreement on the part of the delegation, to advocate the measures proposed two years since by Mr. PINCENEY of South Carelina, which, you remember, were at that time generally opposed by the Southern members. All who then opposed his report and resolutions, accin now to have come to a ditterent conclusion, and believe his course to have been a wise one. Mr. Paton, therefore, is aurules of ther House for the purpose of introdu cing a motion similar to that introduced by Mr. Pinckney. The effect of that motion was, and will be, to check all discussions, and to lay the Abolition memorials on the table without readfurnish you with all that you could learn.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21 2 o'clock P. M. Mr Slade, while the journal of yesterday proceedings were being read objected to the manner in which the proceedings had been ened an amendment, which the House rejected.

Mr. Paton, of Virginia, asked the unammous consent of the House in order to allow him to office a resolution. The resolution was read for information, and proposed that all petitions relating to the abolition of stavery in the District of Columbia, all resolutions and petitions in relation to the buying and selling of slaves, and every thing in relation to slavery be taid on the table without discussion, without reference, without reading, and without printing.

Mr. Adams objected to the reception of the

The rules were therefore suspended, and Mr. Paton, of Virginia, took the floor in its defence. Mr Paton said that he brought forward the resolution as a peace-offering, in the hopes of harmonizing and tranquilizing the House. He could not refer to the scenes of yesterday and the emotions that were then excited in his bos. om, without expressing the warm and exciting feelings of his heart, and he would not, therefore refer to them at all. In concluding his remarks he said he should do now what he had never done before, and what he had rarely voted for when the motion come from others He therefore Bloved the PREVIOUS QUESTION-Mr. Adarperrose to speak, and said that it was acquittal. not custor a faction for the Previous. Question to be preceded by any remarks. Cries of order, order, ORDER, ORDER, were heard voice with their Stent rian cries.

The House then acconded the Previous Question, voting by letters, 124 in the Affirmative. ... Shall the main question be now put?" was now in order. The year and nays were demanded and the main question was ordered by the following vote: ayes 129 nays 62.

The question was "Shall the resolution ar?" The year and nays were ordered and acconded. Mr. Duncan, of Ohio, asked the Speaker of the House if he could be permitted to give his reasons for opposing the resolution. The Speaker told him that it was not in order. The Clerk at this moment called Mr Adams'

Mr. Adams rose and said, I hold this resolution to be in violation of the Constitution of the United States. Тыв Социстив от Ways and Means. The Committee of Ways and Means, by the ungent makely cours that they have adopted toward Mr Pl tcher, have directed the attempon of the whole country towards their doings and the result must prove any thing but favorable to the Committee, or to the administration. The ough. following is an extract from the Washington correspondence of the Baltimore Patriot :-

" It is evident that the majority of the Committee of Ways and Means in making an issue with Mr. Fletcher of Boston, respecting his. the greature aitis ngainst the interests of their party. It is, as Talleyrand would say, worse than a crime it is a mistake! I venture to say that the party will grow sick enough of the busmess before it is over.

_As to the judividuals concerned it is not ne. cessary to say imuch. All your readers are aware that I am habitually actuated by forbearpublic men, knowing from lable we all age to err, in this respect, I do not wish to make arbitrary imputation. But facts may be stated; and the public can form their judgments from those lacts. It is a fuct that there was a very sirikcontrast between the tone with which Mr Cambreleng replied to Mr Fletcher on Wednesday, and that with which he attempted to answer the personal imputations cast upon him by Mr. Huffman during the extra Session. The contraet was so marked as to excite a good deal of derision. It is also a lact, which should he remembered by all who are making up a judgment in respect to the attack on Mr Fletcher. that when Mr. Cambreleng undertook to assail Mr. Bell, last year, in connection with some matters relating to our Indian Affairs the distinguished member from Tennessee fold him in the play test and most elegibetic minutes, that " he doors." These, I believe, were the exuct words. And what reply did this magnanimous person, (who has been so bold, in assuiting an anniable and pacific gentleman, of New England education, deeply imbued with religious principle a member, and us I learn an elder of the church) what snawer did he make to Mr. Bell on that occasion? Surely your readers will well rememer that the charges of being influenced by the Executive of being the mere organs of the Executive of Kring the mere registers of Executive edicts, have been made against the majority of the Finance Committee again and again and yet, never have they been noticed with personality, until they happened to be reiterated by a gentleman, who is well known to be of New England education and an officer of the

It is a fact, too, that the principal accusations brought by Mr. Fletcher on Friday, were hurled against the majority of the Committee of Ways and Mesus, quite us foreibly by Mr Wise, and Mr. Reed of Massachusells, as you will perceive from the reports of the speeches of those gentlemen.

> AN APPLICATING SPECIACLE OF INSTRUCT was witnessed a short time since at the sensite gentlemen went to visit the establishment, accompanied by their child, a little girl of five or six years old. As they passed one of the cells, the wretched inmate, a young woman of about twenty-five, who had irrevocably lost her reason through the desertion of a orducer and the death of heromspring, suddenly made a spring at the little girl who had sporosched within her reach. In the height of her delirium, the poor creature fancied the stranger's child her own, and, devouring it with kiews, bore it in triumph to the further end of her cell. Entreaties and menaces having proved equally ineffectual to induce her to restore the child to its terrified aporther the director of the cetablishment 👾 🗝 sent for, and at his suggestian the maniac was allowed for a few moments to retain peaceable possession of her prize, under the impression that exhausted with her own frantic violence. she would shortly fall saveen, when the child might be liberated from her grasp, without difficulty, or the employment of harsh measures This extentation was not erroneous; in a few minutes the poor sufferer seyes closed in siminber, and one of the keepers watching the opportunity snatohed the child from her arms, and restored it to its mather. BOOK! 1HE attention of School Committees Tranhers and Parents is invited to the examination of the "JUVENILE RYADER," a selection of easy Read ing Lessons, by a Teacher a new admon of which, revised and corrected, we have just published. It is believed that the book is one which has been vely much wanted in our common schools, and in deed it was compiled at the request of many of our best leachers L'he compiler is a gentleman of known abdities, and long/experience in his pro-tession. The pieces in this book, are chiefly selected from popular works designed for youth, and it is believed, will have a healthy moral influence in those schools in which it is adopted. The book comes at a very low-price and has been adopted in a great many her hold with decided approbation, and having been agreeds ped refree from the dan ger of having any alterations made in it, which is the greatest trouble with all school books

Those connected with schools or interested in any manuer, are requestock to a fil and exemite it MALLIC MENKO. 17 West Market Square
